Detailed Action

Response to Amendment

Claims 1-22 are pending. This action is in response to the amendment received October 28, 2005.

Response to Arguments

The rejection of claims 1-22 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Lewis et al (US 6,611,815) is maintained.

Applicant's arguments filed October 28, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to the arguments concerning the previously rejected claims the following comments are made:

A.) In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., Applicants' invention permits accumulated savings to be reported to the saver as a current value and as a defined future income) are not recited in the rejected claim(s).

Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Furthermore, Applicant argues numerously for both limitations when independent claims only claimed one limitation OR the other limitation.

B.) Applicant alleges that the prior art made of record fails to teach at one or more future maturity dates...a lump sum payment amount. The examiner disagrees with applicant's representative since Lewis teaches at one or more future maturity dates... a lump sum payment amount (col. 2, lines 39-52; col. 9, line 54 to col. 10, line 20; fig. 3 (element 76))). In other words, Lewis teaches the lump sum payment amount is known with certainty as in certain maturity date. For example, Lewis discloses the account value at the end of the prior month is $95,000.00, net investment earnings for the month are $900.00, and the amount of the periodic (monthly) income payment is $1,500.00, then the current account value would be $94,400.00.

With regards to the claims rejected as anticipated over Lewis, the examiner would like to point out that the reference teaches the claimed limitations and thus provides adequate support for the claimed limitations. Therefore, the examiner maintains that Lewis anticipated the claimed limitations.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
